Ignite your Senses at the 2019 Amador Four Fires Festival!

Thank you for participating in the fifth annual Amador Four Fire's festival! Projected attendance is around 2,000, which includes all attendees, winery personnel, volunteers, media, and special guests.

Because this event is an immersion into Amador County, it is only open to Amador-related products or Amador resident purveyors.

Application due April 1st

To participate, the following forms must be received no later than April 1st. Space is limited.

To participate, please fill out and return:

- Participant Application (<http://amadorfourfires.com/wp-content/uploads/2016/11/2017-A4F-Non-Vendor-Application.docx>)
- Read the Liability Agreement (<http://amadorfourfires.com/wp-content/uploads/2015/12/2018-A4F-Vendor-ParticipantLiabilityAgreement.docx>)

NOTE: By submitting an Application, you are agreeing to the terms of the Liability Agreement.

Facility Notes:

- Facilities and admittance to be provided per your agreement, including parking.
- Electricity is available in select locations.
- There is limited cell reception at the Fairgrounds.
- An ATM is available on site.

Before the event you will be sent an information packet with details for arrival, parking, check in, and departure. You will also receive a map indicating your location within the event site.

Special Requirements for participants handing out food samples:

If you are providing food to the public, you will need to provide Evidence of Insurance (COL) and a Temporary Food Facility Form.

Temporary Food Facility (TFF) Form – Due April 1st

Even if you have an annual food permit, you are required by Amador County to fill out page 1 of the Temporary Food Facility Form. Please return the TFF form along with your food permit and application to Susie Jones.

Amador County requires all vendors selling an edible product to:

1. Download the Temporary Food Facility form:
2. Check “Other” and Write In “Annual Temp Event Permit”
 - The TFF will be valid from Jan 2019 through Dec 2019 for all events for that year within Amador County. You only need to file it once. However, you will need to provide a copy to each event’s coordinator.
3. Payment of the required fee of $51 per event or $112 for all events within a calendar year is required. Make checks payable to County of Amador.
4. Send the TFF form and payment to:
